I referred Mr. Fleming to Mr. Jack Leahy, in the office of the Assistant Secretary of State, Legislative Affairs, as the appropriate source of information for an open response from Representative Pepper. 4. [] Jack Sullivan, Staff Consultant, Subcommittee on National Security Policy and Scientific Developments, House Foreign Affairs Committee, called to say that Subcommittee Chairman Clement Zablocki wished the Director to testify before the Subcommittee on Soviet MIRV testing on either Tuesday, 29 July, or Thursday, 31 July. I said Tuesday was out of the question because of the Director's appearance before the House Armed Services Committee but I would call back regarding Thursday. I said we normally preferred such Subcommittee briefings to be cleared with the Chairman of the full Committee and asked whether Chairman Morgan had been consulted on this. Sullivan said this had not been done, but reluctantly agreed to take the matter up with Boyd Crawford, Staff Administrator for the full Committee.
